“For an honest, factual analysis of any issue, the League is my resource. I would never undertake a project that did not have the approval of LWVAA.”

Christine Freitag, LWVAA

“Being a part of the League has really inspired and empowered me to learn more about my community and what I can do as a citizen to contribute. In the League, I’ve found the opportunity to approach politics in a truly nonpartisan way and work toward a greater good for our democracy.”

Diana Kingsbury, LWVAA

“Over the years as a homemaker and mother, League has helped me keep my brain alive and added to my knowledge. One thing has led to another in League— it is an extraordinary organization.”

Marjorie Thiell, LWVAA

“I trust the League of Women Voters – I rely on their Voters’ Guides.”

Bruce Greer, LWVAA

“I’m proud to be a Leaguer because I know that it means we do our part in the democratic process, not just talk about what we could do.”

Ardith Keck, LWVAA
