

The Akron Voter

Volume 5, Issue 3

September 2012

President's Remarks by Tina Merlitti

The League of Women Voters has been working on a fair, nonpartisan, way to draw voting districts in Ohio since 1967. In the 17 years I have been a member of the League we have talked about how this process is done and how it not only favors the party in power but also how an elected official can be drawn out of their district or put in a district with another sitting legislator, so that two incumbents must run against each other. This happens in both parties and on every level of our government: city, county, state and federal.

State Issue 2 is a chance to change this crazy, lopsided, system on the state level and hopefully be a spring-board for changes to be made on the local level. Brent Larkin from the Plain Dealer commented that "A creative toddler with an Etch A Sketch could have drawn more rational boundaries..." He is right about that-- Summit County is just terrible! The County has been spilt into 4 different districts which, depending on how the election goes in November, may leave the citizens of Summit County with no representation. Summit County could be left with not one of its 4 congressional representatives a Summit County resident. Now that is sad, especially considering the population size of our county.

Unfortunately, there are some naysayers out there when it comes to State Issue 2 (Voters First) including Mr. Larkin from the Plain Dealer. I think this is just a lack of understanding about how the new system will be set up. Mr. Larkin assumes that the judges who review the nonpartisan commission's applications have more power than they do. Their role is simply to make sure the applicants meet the criteria, such as: registered voter, not an elected official, not a political operative, etc. Then four Republicans, four Democrats and four people not affiliated with either party will be randomly selected from among all qualified applicants.

Some are trying to claim that this ballot issue is somehow partisan because some of the groups who have signed on as supporters are partisan. However, the original coalition led by the League of Women Voters, Ohio Citizen Action, Common Cause, et al, who wrote this important amendment, are completely nonpartisan and it was only after these nonpartisan organizations led the way that other groups jumped on the bandwagon. Even the current Secretary of State tried during his days as a legislator to get things changed but he was never able to get the bipartisan support he needed for his bill.

In this current political climate of negative ads and political polarization it is good to see an initiative that will bring balance by creating a Citizen Redistricting Commission. This Commission will be required to draw compact districts that do their best to keep communities together and to make districts that are politically balanced and competitive. All meetings of the Commission will be open to the public with the opportunity for public comment. State Issue 2 will bring the power back to the people.

Did You Know — Paul Revere

by Maureen Sullivan

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow made Paul Revere a national hero with the quotation, "Listen, my children, and you shall hear of the midnight ride of Paul Revere."

Longfellow wrote the poem in 1861 as the Civil War was coming upon the country and many people were undecided about their feelings on the war. He was saying that one man alone could turn the course of history. Longfellow, who often used poetry to remind readers of cultural and moral values, warns at the end of the poem of a coming "hour of darkness and peril and need", implying the breakup of the Union, and suggests that the "people will waken and listen to hear" the midnight message again.

Truth was that Revere did not act alone.

There were sixty other riders who were out that night. But Paul Revere was more than a messenger, he was an organizer.

Other facts about Paul Revere you may not know:

- Paul Revere is credited by the Central Intelligence Agency as the creator of the first Patriot intelligence network on record.
- Paul Revere produced dental prosthetics and even advertised as a dentist.
- Revere participated in the Boston Tea Party dressed as "Mohawk."
- Revere's silver shop produced more than 5000 pieces of silver works.
- The business founded by Paul Revere, Revere Copper Products, Inc. still operates today in Massachusetts and several other locations

- Paul Revere was also Boston's Fire Warden in 1775. Like several other patriots including Sam Adams and John Hancock, Revere held the post of one of Boston's nine fire marshals.

Membership Contest!

by Ardith Keck

We need blood! New blood, that is. The Membership Committee of our League is sponsoring a contest to see who can come up with the most new members. Here are the rules:

Who? Any new member or former member whose membership has lapsed for three years

Why? We love our members but the same people get tired of doing the same things and need some help.

Who? Of course, we love active members who love to get involved, but we want those members who just want to join to support us, too.

How? Just ask everyone you know. All your relatives and friends and neighbors. You never know until you ask.

When? The contest runs from early summer until Election Day.

Where? We have prizes for a League member who gathers the most new members. So, you and your friend could be having dinner at one of Akron's best restaurants on us. And there's more, in case of a tie. Pretty exciting!

Who? The Treasurer, Sharley Greer, or any member of the Membership Committee- Katie Fry, Sara Gibbs, Erica Greer or Ardith Keck must have your information by Election Day.

So, get started and just ASK!

Constitution Day

by Erica Greer

The following information about Constitution Day is taken from Wikipedia. Please read the full article at this link:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Constitution_Day_%28United_States%29

Constitution Day (or Citizenship Day) is an American federal observance that recognizes the adoption of the United States Constitution and those who have become U.S. citizens. It is observed on September 17, the day the U.S. Constitutional Convention signed the Constitution in 1787.

The law establishing the holiday was created in 2004 with the passage of an amendment by Senator Robert Byrd to the Omnibus spending bill of 2004. Before this law was enacted, the holiday was known as "Citizenship Day." In addition to renaming the holiday "Constitution Day and Citizenship Day," the act mandates that all publicly funded educational institutions provide educational programming on the history of the American Constitution on that day. In May 2005, the United States Department of Education announced the enactment of this law and that it would apply to any school receiving federal funds of any kind. This holiday is not observed by granting time off work for federal employees.

Universities and colleges nationwide have created "U.S. Constitution and Citizenship Weeks" in order to meet the requirements of the law. For example, the Milwaukee School of Engineering (MSOE) has created a celebration week that includes "Constitution Trivia Contests", distribution of free copies of the U.S. Constitution, a campus & community fair (in which volunteer and community groups can share information with students), a web page with facts and links related to the Constitution and history of the United States. MSOE has also distributed thousands of free "Presidential quote" t-shirts to all students on campus.

Iowa schools first recognized Constitution Day in 1911. In 1917, the Sons of the American Revolution formed a committee to promote Constitution Day. The committee would include members such as Calvin Coolidge, John D. Rockefeller, and General John Pershing.

In 1939, William Randolph Hearst advocated, through his chain of daily newspapers, the creation of a holiday to celebrate citizenship. In 1940, Congress designated the third Sunday in May as I am an American Day. By 1949, governors of all 48 states had issued Constitution Day proclamations. On February 29, 1952, Congress moved that observation to September 17 and renamed it Citizenship Day.

Notable Quotable

"Every citizen of this country should be guaranteed that their vote matters, that their vote is counted, and that in the voting booth, their vote has as much weight as that of any CEO, any member of Congress, or any President."

Barbara Boxer, junior Senator from California

Women's Equality Day Picnic

by Martha Lester

The Annual Picnic brought together more some 32 members and friends for a potluck dinner at the Shady Hollow shelter in Sand Run MetroPark on Thursday August 23. With so many and such a variety of mostly homemade dishes -- from soup to nuts -- everyone found plenty of choices to satisfy their palate.

Following the dinner President Tina Merlitti welcomed everyone and convened a brief business meeting to allow the membership to vote on the 2012-2013

Budget, which had been tabled at the Annual Meeting in June because of irregularities. The budget was approved by the members in attendance as presented.

Committee chairs gave brief reports and asked for extra help for the next several months of this very busy election year. As a volunteer grassroots organization, it is very important for people to help out on a level they are comfortable with -- there are many opportunities, large and small.

Our special guest speaker, 9th District Court of Appeals Judge Eve Belfance, gave a presentation explaining how the Supreme Court ruled on much more than the narrow issue actually before it originally. She also discussed the US Supreme Court's justices reasoning in the "Citizen's United" case that declared corporations are "people" with free speech rights the same as individuals. She summarized both the majority and the dissenting minority arguments.

As always, the food at League picnics impresses!

A little post-dinner budget business is taken care of.

President Tina Merlitti (left) discusses the proposed budget.

Special guest Judge Eve Belfance (right) discusses the complicated issues behind the Supreme Court decision in Citizens United vs. Federal Elections Commission.

Member Spotlight on.....Diana Kingsbury

When did you join the League?

I joined the League in 2007.

Why did you join LWVA? And why have you stayed in League?

I joined because of the League’s reputation and because of the voter registration component. I think that’s important. I also joined because I was interested in being politically active but in a non-partisan way.

I have stayed in the League because I believe in its mission. I think a lot of good work is being done. I especially appreciate the work done in the voter service area, informing voters.

What positions, if any, have you held within the League?

I was newsletter editor from 2007-2010. I chaired the Recall Study Committee in 2009-2010. I was President-Elect during that League year as well. Then I was President from 2010-2012. I will be on the Nominating Committee for the next two years.

What do you find most rewarding about being a League member?

I think it is the opportunity to help inform voters. I like being out there and active in the community, helping voters to understand issues. I also really value the study and consensus process of the League. Chairing the recall study was a very interesting experience.

What do you think is the biggest issue voters face?

I think many people don’t have their heart in the democratic process. People think their vote won’t count and don’t feel it’s important to be active — or that it will make a difference if they are. I also think that finding non-biased information and determining fact from fiction is a real challenge for many people.

Are you involved in any other community organizations?

Not at the moment. I am working part time and going to school full time, working on a doctorate in public health. That doesn’t leave me much time for other things, but I hope to be more involved again when I’m done with school.

What interests do you have outside of the League?

I really enjoy travelling, reading, and spending time with family and friends. That’s about all I can squeeze in right now!

Following the film, Dr. Steve Brooks, Associate Director of the Bliss Institute, will lead a discussion of "The Civility Project" which explores civility in Ohio politics.

Mark your calendars and make plans to attend on Thursday, October 18!

First is a meeting in support of State Issue 2, the “Voters First” proposed redistricting amendment to the Ohio Constitution. Join LWV Hudson on Thursday, October 18 at 7:00 PM at the Hudson Library and Historical Society, 96 Library St. in Hudson. o. The meeting begins at 7:00 PM.

Also on LWV Hudson’s agenda is a candidates’ forum on Wednesday, October 24 in the Community Room at Laurel Lake, 200 Laurel Lake Drive off Boston Mills Road in Hudson. Various county-wide candidates have been invited.
